

Chglndwn/Chglnup/Swapend

The chglndwn command will convert a regular line into one that starts at the surface and slopes to end at the designated cut depth.

SCALE
CHGLINE
CHGLNDWN
CHGLNUP
SWAPEND

The chglnup command will convert a regular line into one that plunges to cut depth and slopes up to end at the surface.

CHGLINE
CHGLNDWN
CHGLNUP
SWAPEND
CHGORDER

The swapend command will change the direction of cut. Select item and reply “yes” to the command line. The green box indicates the line start point and the

CHGLNDWN
CHGLNUP
SWAPEND
CHGORDER
LISTFRNT
JOIN

Red triangle shows where line ends.

Green square shows where line starts.

